

Joe Baxter is rapidly establishing his reputation as one of Maidstone's most exciting breakthrough DJ's in years. This is further amplified by him being able to call dance music institution The Source Bar his home, Joe has become a regular fixture on line ups which have seen him support: Nic Fanculli, Hot Since 82, Solardo, Camel Phat and Jamie Jones.

Back in 2017, Joe launched his own event 'Until Tomorrow' which to date has sold out every party, an incredible feat for anyone let alone a DJ in their 20's. This is down to Joe's ability to cultivate a community of passionate clubbers and curate refreshingly original line-ups, with some of the biggest names in dance music: Camelphat, Hot Since 82, Idris Elba, Pete Tong, Roger Sanchez and Solardo.

The attention Joe has garnered from across the scene has seen him headline arguably the most renowned pub in the UK for underground raves 'The Dog & Whistle' whilst also landing sets at Abode in the Park, Studio 338, The Bunker – Derby, Summer-ized Sessions at The Prince of Wales and Cafe 1001.

This has driven Joe to lock himself away in the studio and learn the art of production to push him onto the next level, with a whole host of international names already lining up to get their hands on his productions; Alex Kennon, Hot Since 82, Nic Fanciulli and Co-Founder of Toolroom Records Stuart Knight.

One thing is certain Joe's versatility and quality behind the decks combined with his sell-out parties and mixing with the world's best DJ's is a recipe for success, be sure to keep an eye out for Joe!
